Dear Ben:

Subject: Jackson Sanitary Landfill

Reference: Pfefferle/Betzhold letter, same subject, dated May 4, 1984 (recvd 5/7/84)

The following answers and attached information is in response to the requests made in the reference letter to The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company.

1. Yes. The name, composition and origin is:

Name	Composition
Waste Acetone Mixture	Acetone and Polyester Resin Mixture
Waste Paint Mixture	Cyclohexanone
	Dichloromethane
	Isobutyl alcohol
	Methyl ethyl ketone
	Methyl isobutyl ketone
	Toluene
	Xylene
Waste Styrene Mixture	Styrene and Polyester Resin

The origin of the above was the Jackson, Ohio Plant of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company.

2. No.
3. Appendix A is the quantity of material by type which was taken to the Jackson Landfill during the years listed. The quantity listed is by 55-gallon drums. The quantities were arrived at by taking the percentage of the material generated between 1981 and 1984 on the Hazardous Waste Manifests and calculating backwards to get the estimated quantities of each of the waste streams generated between 1974 and 1980.

4. The hazardous wastes were containerized in 55-gal steel drums. Appendix B reflects the dates that the drums were taken to the Jackson Sanitary Landfill.
5. Appendix C is a copy of the log in which the number of drums delivered to the Jackson Landfill were recorded. Signed receipts of the drums removed from the property during those years are available, but have not been separated from the other trash receipts generated during the same period of time; however, they will be sent if requested. Individual receipts were checked for the years 1974 and 1975, since the log was incomplete during those years, and receipts were available. There are no records or receipts for any hazardous substances and/or hazardous wastes generated from 1966 (plant start-up) to 1974 when the log was started. The person maintaining the log is Mrs Jan Forsyth, secretary for the Plant Manager, Jackson, Ohio Plant.
6. There was no written agreement, contract or lease between Goodyear and the owner of the site or transporters.
7. Listed below are the individuals which may have knowledge relating to the disposal of hazardous substances and/or hazardous wastes at the site:
